arXiv Submittal Agreement

arXiv is a curated research-sharing platform emphasizing openness, collaboration, and scholarship. By submitting articles, comments, or other written work (the “Work”), you (including any other authors of the Work) are agreeing to comply with these terms, which is an agreement (the “Agreement”) between you and Cornell University on behalf of arXiv (“arXiv”).

Representations and Warranties

I make the following representations and warranties:

- I am the original author of the Work or a proxy pre-approved by arXiv administrators acting on behalf of an original author.
- I am completing this Agreement on behalf of and binding upon all author(s).
- I have full authority to enter into and make this Agreement and to grant the rights contained in this Agreement. If the Work was created by multiple authors, I affirm that my co-author(s) have consented to the submission of the Work to arXiv under the Agreement terms with me acting on my co-author(s)’ behalf.
- I have the right to include any third-party materials used in the Work.
- The use of any third-party materials is consistent with scholarly and academic standards of proper citation and acknowledgement of sources.

- The Work is not subject to any agreement, license, or other claim that could interfere with the rights granted to arXiv herein.
- The distribution of the Work by arXiv will not violate any rights of any person or entity, including, without limitation, any rights of copyright, patent, trade secret, privacy, or any other rights.
- The work contains no defamatory, obscene, or other unlawful matter.
- I will not enter into other agreements or make other commitments that would conflict with the rights granted to arXiv.
- I have the authority to make the statements, grant the rights, and take the actions described above.

Compliance with arXiv Policies

I agree to comply with all arXiv policies, including but not limited to, those related to the code of conduct, moderation, and privacy. My failure to so comply may result in arXiv suspending access, removing Works, or otherwise taking action it determines is necessary. I understand and agree that arXiv reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to take any action that arXiv determines is required in order to comply with applicable arXiv policies and any applicable laws, including but not limited to removal of a Work or blocking access to it.

Curation of Content

arXiv is a moderated repository for scholarly material, and, as such, maintains a permanent collection of submitted Works. arXiv maintains a record of all versions of Works that are submitted, including previous versions that have been updated and/or corrected. By making this submission to arXiv, I agree to the following:

- arXiv reserves the right to reclassify, reject, or remove any submission.

- Submissions will be automatically compared with other arXiv articles and detected text overlap may be noted.
- In cases where public papers are found to violate arXiv policy, arXiv may withdraw the paper and indicate the concern in the Comments metadata.
- Metadata may be corrected to conform to arXiv standards.

Grant of the License to arXiv

By making this submission to arXiv:

- I grant arXiv a non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, and royalty-free license to include the Work in the arXiv repository.
- I permit users to access, view, and make other uses of the work in a manner consistent with the services and objectives of arXiv.
- I agree that this license includes without limitation the right for arXiv to reproduce (e.g., upload, backup, archive, preserve, and allow online access), distribute (e.g., allow access), make available, and prepare versions of the Work (e.g., abstracts, and metadata or text files, formats to support accessibility, machine-readable formats) in analog, digital, or other formats existing now or in the future as arXiv may deem appropriate.
- I agree that the rights and licenses granted may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed to another organization that is assuming (taking over) any arXiv responsibilities.

Waiver of Rights and Indemnification

I waive the following claims on behalf of myself and all other authors of the Work with me acting on my co-author(s)' behalf:

- Any claims against arXiv or Cornell University, or any officer, employee, or agent and their successors, assignees, or heirs (hereinafter “the indemnified parties”) thereof, based upon the use of the Work by arXiv consistent with the License.

- Any claims against the indemnified parties based upon actions taken by any such party with respect to the Work, including without limitation decisions to include the Work in, or exclude the Work from, the repository; editorial decisions or changes affecting the Work, including the identification of myself and contributing co-author(s) and our affiliations or titles; the classification or characterization of the Work; the content of any metadata; the availability or lack of availability of the Work to researchers or other users of arXiv, including any decision to include the Work initially or remove or disable access.
- Any rights related to the integrity of the Work under moral rights principles.
- Any claims against the indemnified parties based upon any technical failures that result in a loss of content or inadvertent disclosure of information provided in connection with a submission.
- I will indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the indemnified parties from any loss, damage, or claim arising out of or related to: (a) any breach of any representations or warranties herein; (b) any failure by myself or my co-author(s) to perform any of our obligations herein with me acting on my co-author(s)' behalf; and (c) any use of the Work as anticipated in the License and terms of submittal.

Management of Copyright

This grant to arXiv is a non-exclusive license and is not a grant of exclusive rights or a transfer of the copyright.

- I acknowledge that I may enter into publication agreements or other arrangements regarding the Work if I either (a) retain a copyright in the Work; or (b) no longer retain a copyright in the Work before submission but do have the right to submit the Work.

- I agree that it is my sole responsibility to ensure that any additional publication agreements or other arrangements do not prohibit or impair arXiv's redistribution license or conflict with arXiv's ability to exercise the rights and licenses granted under this Agreement.
- arXiv has no obligation to protect or enforce any copyright in the Work, and arXiv has no obligation to respond to any permission requests or other inquiries regarding the copyright in or other uses of the Work.

You may elect to make the Work available under one of the following licenses that you shall select at the time of submission:

- Creative Commons Attribution license (CC BY 4.0) (<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>);
- Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike license (CC BY-SA 4.0) (<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/4.0/>);
- Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial-ShareAlike license (CC BY-NC-SA 4.0) (<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>);
- Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives license (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0) (<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0/>);
- arXiv license (<https://arxiv.org/licenses/nonexclusive-distrib/1.0/license.html>); or
- Creative Commons Public Domain Dedication (CCo 1.0) (<https://creativecommons.org/share-your-work/public-domain/cc0/>).

If you wish to use a different CC license, select arXiv's non-exclusive license to distribute in the arXiv submission process and indicate the desired Creative Commons license in the actual article.

The Creative Commons licenses are explained here:

<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/>.

You should take care to submit a work to arXiv only if you are certain that you will not later wish to publish it in a journal or other outlet that prohibits prior distribution on an e-print server. arXiv will not remove an announced article in order to comply with such a journal policy – the license granted upon submission is irrevocable.

Metadata license

To the extent that you or arXiv has a copyright interest in metadata accompanying the submission, a Creative Commons CCo 1.0 Universal Public Domain Dedication will apply. Metadata includes title, author, abstract, and other information describing the Work.

General Provisions

This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the substantive and procedural laws of the State of New York and the applicable federal law of the United States without reference to any conflicts of laws principles.

- By making this submission, I agree that any action, suit, arbitration, or other proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement must be commenced in the state or federal courts serving Tompkins County, New York.
- I, and on behalf of any and all authors, hereby consent to the personal jurisdiction of such courts.
